NEW ARMY SAFE
Insurgents Strengthened, Danger of Attack Materially Lessened.

(Bulletin)
Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico, April 23.—Mazatlan, Sinaloa, a port on the Pacific coast of Mexico, is being attacked by revolutionary forces under General Flores, according to an unconfirmed report received at military headquarters here today. General Calles announced the attack had been expected since yesterday.

[By Associated Press.]
Agua Prieta, April 23.—The revolutionary movement initiated in Sonora has spread into Chihuahua, where additional Carranza military leaders were reported to have joined the rebels according to press and Sonora official accounts available here today. Sonora leaders said it was indicated the Carranza government rapidly was losing ground in northern Mexico without bloodshed, however.

Leaders Quit Carranza
Gen. P. Elias Calles, commander-in-chief of the rebels, today said more defections from the Carranza ranks were imminent and that several Carranza leaders had agreed to join the revolution. He said reports of two other Carranza leaders in the same state having joined Del Arco with their men.

Approximately 4,000 Carranza troops at Parral and Jimenez, Chihuahua, revolted yesterday. The troops at Parral were commanded by General Amabilis and the troops at Jimenez by Gen. A. Gomez and they revolted simultaneously with the infantry regiment commanded by Gen. Del Arco at another point in Chihuahua. The troops were under the supreme command of General Joaquin Amaro, who is said to have joined the revolt.

Roberts Get Airplanes
The newest revolt in Chihuahua, it was said, will give the revolutionary army large quantities of ammunition and other supplies. Airplanes used by the Carranza forces against Francisco Villa also have fallen into the hands of the revolutionists, it was said.

The revolutionists in Chihuahua, it was announced, now outnumber the men President Carranza has massed on the Chihuahua border for an attack on Sonora and the danger of attack has been materially lessened. An amalgamated force of revolutionists in this district with the new rebels in Chihuahua was forecast for an active campaign against Carranzistas in northern Mexico.

A force of 10 men who robbed the postoffice, telegraph office, and express office, stores, disarmed the police and customs officers, and looted all the available stores in the city.

HOW FAST DID CAB DRIVERS GO-QUERY

From 30 to 35 Miles Per Hour, Say Two—Less Than 15 Per Hour, Swear Four.

A maze of conflicting testimony, Judge H. L. Maxwell had before him for decision the city's case against Charles Williams and Edward Wandel, taxi drivers charged with speeding, probably the most unique speeding trial in the municipal court's history.

Did Williams and Wandel stage a race on South Franklin street, March 30, traveling from 30 to 35 miles per hour?

Or were they merely jogging along at a rate of 13 to 14 miles per hour, conversing, car to car?

These were the questions before the court. The decision will be a "Yes" answer to one of the two queries, but which?

JOHNSON GIVEN
CLOSE RACE IN EAST,
GENERAL IN LEAD

LATE RETURNS SHOW SENATOR LAGS BEHIND BY 533 VOTES.

OHIO FOR HOME SON

Hoover Gets Scattering Following; Cox Only Democratic Candidate.

(By Associated Press)
Newark, N. J., April 23.—Major General Leonard Wood was still leading Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California this afternoon in New Jersey's preferential presidential primary contest.

At 12:45 o'clock revised returns for 1859 election districts out of 2025 gave Wood 49,770 and Johnson 49,237.

Election of three members of the republican "big four" was assured. United States Senators Walter E. Edge and Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, pledged to the presidential preference expressed by the voters of the state, led their opponents by substantial pluralities, while former Gov. Edward C. Stokes, pledged to Wood, obtained third place. Former Acting Gov. William N. Runyon, pledged to Wood, was in fourth place.

Returns for district delegates were incomplete. Republican results were known only in five districts which elected five Wood delegates, four Johnson and one unpledged. Incomplete returns from 6 other districts showed a close, but indicated election of eight Wood, two Johnson, and two unpledged delegates.

Johnson Gets 6 Delegates
Complete returns from the 12th district showed that Johnson had obtained 6 delegates, bringing his total to 6 as compared to Wood's 4.

In this district, both Johnson and Wood had outstripped two pledged to Senator Harding of Ohio. This was the only district in which the name of Harding adherents appeared.

Edwards Heads "Big Four"
Gov. Edward J. Edwards, who has announced that he would carry the night against prohibition on the night of the democratic San Francisco convention, was elected head of the "big four." Other democratic leaders were James R. Nugent, Essex county democratic leader; Mayor Frank Hague, Jersey City, and Mayor W. G. Harding, Trenton. Democratic voters did not have opportunity to register their choice for president, there being no candidates named in the ballot although all of the "big four" and virtually all of the district delegates are pledged to the candidacy of Governor Edwards.

SEN. HARDING LEADS
WOOD BY 12,281 VOTES
Columbus, Ohio, April 23.—Late returns from yesterday's presidential primary election in Ohio from all but 582 of the 5,882 precincts in the state showed that Senator W. G. Harding was leading General Wood by 12,281 votes. The vote in 5,800 precincts stood: Harding 114,898; Wood 102,617.

The whole German forces in the Ruhr region, the premier declared, must be reduced to 10,000 men by June 15, 1920, according to the German soldiers must be withdrawn and replaced by a police force of 10,000 men.

"I said at San Remo," he continued, "and I repeat it here now, that it is a crime and a stupidity to believe France desires to annex any fresh German territory."

The details of the treaty with Turkey cannot be divulged before Turkey's plenipotentiaries come to Paris on May 10, but he said that the treaty is in conformity with the outline already made public, the Turks being maintained in Constantinople and the territories in which they are the majority.

In conclusion, M. Millerand declared that upon leaving San Remo the allies were more united than ever.

Although their names were not printed on the ballot, Senator Johnson and California received 12,768 votes and Herbert Hoover of California received 3,253 votes in 2,440 precincts.

The name of Gov. Cox of Ohio was the only one appearing on the democratic presidential ballot in the state. The name of William G. Harding was written in. All democratic candidates to the national convention were pledged to Cox.

Returns from 3,691 out of a total of 5,882 precincts showed three man leading in the race for delegates at large to the republican national convention.

Additional returns indicated that Harding carried 14 delegates to the convention. Wood carried 11 and Johnson 11. Cox carried 11.

Massachusetts elected 35 delegates to Republican National Convention Tuesday, headed by Senator Lodge, unpunished for Coolidge if he is a candidate.

Washington state republican convention elected 14 delegates pledged to Senator Miles Polinder.

Another pre-nuptial affair was that given by the Ladies Aid of the Catholic church, and the Royal Neighbors, of which she is a member, and at which time the bride-to-be received many presents. Miss Pauline Kelley went to Whitewater Saturday to spend Sunday with her friend, Miss Ruth Stebens, who is attending Whitewater normal.

At 7:30 o'clock Monday morning at the Catholic church in this village, occurred the marriage of Miss Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McCaslin, of this place, and Miles McGuire, Center, Rev. Father McDermott officiating. Joe McGuire and sister, Miss Anna, brother and sister of the groom, attended as best man and bridesmaid. The bride was crowned in a suit of dark blue. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which the bridal party motored to Janesville. From there they will go to Rockford for a short stay with relatives, after which they will return and begin housekeeping on the John Sullivan farm near Magnolia, where they will be at home to their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Berryman spent Sunday afternoon at the home of their son, Ernie, and family in Hanover. They found him slightly improved.

FULTON

[By Gazette Correspondent.]
Fulton, April 23.—Miss Ella Nichols, Viroqua, was a guest of Stella Atkinson the latter part of last week.

Misses Edith and Lou Raymond entertained Miss Dorothy Sayre and girl friend of Beloit, over the week-end.

Mrs. D. F. Sayre had as her guests over Sunday, an old school friend, Mrs. K. Chamberlain, and daughters, Margaret and Genevieve, Madison.

Other Fulton people home for Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. O. Zelman and two friends, A. W. Day, R. P. Sander, J. Berg, J. Janesville; Miss Dorothy Blank, Edgerton; Carl Ruess, E. Sayre, J. E. Wallin and R. P. Fosse.

Rev. Mr. Corpe, Beloit college, was entertained at the W. T. Post home over Sunday. On Sunday afternoon in the church Rev. Mr. Corpe and Rev. Mr. Allingham, a state worker, held a meeting in the interests of the Inter-World Church movement.

There will be another Friday evening at which a minister from Fort Atkinson will speak.

The dancing party in the hall last Friday evening, called out over 50 couples and many friends of the players who sponsored the affair. Supper was served at midnight by the Ladies Aid.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Graper and daughter of La Salle, Ill., motored here Saturday for a visit with Mrs. Graper's sister in Janesville and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Berg, here. They were on their way to see his parents in Fort Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Berg and family of Stoughton, who have recently moved into the city, visited at the John Berg home here Sunday.

Tomorrow Night's Gazette, Page Three of the Advertising Section, Will Carry the First Installment of the Story Entitled—"Breaking The Back of High Prices"

A CAMPAIGN TO HELP LOWER THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

For months we have been looking forward to the time when we might start a worthwhile fight against high prices. The whole world is tired of paying so much more for things than they are worth. You are tired of high prices. We are tired of high prices. Manufacturers are tired of high prices. The very men whose wages are the largest item of the high prices, are tired of them.

There is no satisfaction in getting a big price, or a big day's wage, when the bigger sum of money will not buy its real value.

As our part in bringing about a start toward lower prices, we inaugurate this extraordinary downward price movement right in the heart of the season—Not because the goods are cheaper on the market, but as an arbitrary act—a definite loss of profits.

TO MAKE GOODS CHEAPER IN SPITE OF THEIR HIGH COST.

This is your opportunity to save 1-10 to 1-5 and even 1/2 on your Summer needs in wearing apparel. Yard Goods, Hosiery, Underwear, Corsets, Millinery, Waists and Sweaters. See tomorrow night's "Gazette" page three for particulars regarding this sale which begins Saturday morning, May 1st and lasts until Saturday Night, May 8th.

WAGE FIGHT FAILS TO STOP BUILDING

Striking Craftsmen Claim To Have Plenty of Work—Several Plan to Contract Jobs.

The wage controversy between the unions and the builders' exchange has been slightly hampered by building operations, according to the craftsmen. Close to 125 carpenters are reported to be employed throughout the city, some engaged in home remodeling and repairs, and others preparing to go into the contracting line themselves.

At least one carpenter has made application for a builder's license. Others say they are awaiting results of the strike before taking contemplated action along this line.

Many calls for men. "The bad weather of the past several weeks has served to keep many carpenters idle," explained one today. "But there are a great many engaged in work and just due to the fact that the weather clears a large number will be able to take up outside jobs."

One contractor has taken a contract for the building of two homes in the Fourth ward. There are several others who will make application shortly unless settlement of the walk-out is made.

Parlier Job Is Rushed. Work on the Parlier Pen company building has taken a decided spurt since the strike. The labor council has ordered the contractors to rush the job.

Union pickets still patrol the city. Wordy clashes with contractors have been numerous, but as yet no acts of violence against personal or other, have been reported.

No large number of workmen have been discharged, as was feared by either the builders or other concerns. Some have arrived with scouts, and are looking over the situation. Some have departed for employment elsewhere. Several have been charged. It is said that conditions were grossly misrepresented to them.

CANADIAN QUARTERS WORTH 15c; GOVT. SEEKS CIRCULATORS

Importers of Canadian quarters are reaping a harvest in many cities and federal agents are seeking them out. Janesville residents should watch their change as they will lose 10 cents on each of the Canadian pieces, their present value being but 15 cents.

Canadian quarters have been worth but 20 cents in American money, especially in this section of the country. In communities bordering on Canada they have been circulated at face value, but not so here. The dime passes without question, even though their actual value is less than that of the American dime.

Professional circulators are at work putting out the Canadian quarters, securing their supply in the United States where they pass them for their face value if persons will accept them and for 20 cents, the former value in American coin, in most instances.

The only safe way for Janesville people is to refuse to accept a Canadian quarter. This condition comes about by reason of the fact that the rate of exchange on Canadian money is greater than ever before.

TANK COMPANY HAS FEDERAL RECOGNITION

Janesville's National Guard organization, Company "I", Tank Corps, has been given federal recognition to date from March 21, 1920. This information was received today in a copy of a telegram to Adjutant General Holway of the Wisconsin National Guard from the Chief of the Militia Bureau.

Pay for drill and responsibility to the federal government started with that date. In order that the organization may be eligible for pay, the required percentage of drill attendance must be maintained. To date the company has had more than the required number present at each drill. The organization will be paid twice a year, the dates of payment being July 1 and January 1.

Information was contained in the same telegram to the effect that the Tank School which was to have started May 1st at Camp Meade, Maryland, has been postponed until a later date. No reason is stated for the postponement, but it is probable that it is due to the fact that organizations assigned to eleven other states than Wisconsin, have not been perfected. The Company "I" detail which was to have left for Camp Meade this week will be held in readiness and will proceed to the school upon receipt of definite orders to do so.

RETURN OF AMERICA'S MOST POPULAR ATTRACTION

THE BIRD OF PARADISE
The only play on the American stage today that deals with life on the Hawaiian Islands.

It was produced eight years ago by Oliver Morosco. The story is by Richard Walton Tully, the author of "The Rose of the Rancho," "Omar, the Tentmaker," and "The Plum," his latest effort. Mr. Tully lived for many years on the islands, and in "The Bird of Paradise," he has brought his audience in close touch with matters pertaining to them just before the annexation. He tells a story of love and intrigue, and although he brings the note of tragedy into the life of the little Hawaiian girl, Luana, who makes her mistake like many others of her sisters before her, yet redeems her error by her own self-sacrifice, also he shows many flashes of humor both native and American.

Laurette Taylor, Beatie Barriscale, Lenore Ulrich, Charlotte Monteroy and Muriel Starr have been seen as Luana, and Mr. Morosco will now offer Miss Ann Reader, his most recent "find," whose personality and talent fit her admirably for this famous role. She is considered the equal to any who have been seen in the part before. She is surrounded with a carefully selected cast of over twenty acting people, including a quintette of native Hawaiian singers and players, whose music is one of the chief charms of the piece. The stage setting is lavish in the tropical settings and colorings, especially the last act showing Mt. Kilauea. Heavily dreaded volcano in violent eruption.

This day, in 1828, Silas S. Packard was born. He established the first business college in this country at New York, and from it has grown the great number of colleges of this character.

FOR PROTECTION OF THE CITY.

Another step forward in Janesville is the ordinance for a system of parking on the public streets devised by the highway committee of the city council and to be presented for action at the next meeting. This has long been needed, and with additional traffic regulations and later if the traffic warrants the use of traffic officers at the periods of greatest congestion, there will have been installed that measure of safety which is within the province of the city to provide.

As Janesville grows, and as the automobile becomes the almost universal method of local travel, the necessity for such traffic regulations as will guarantee the pedestrian safety, and at the same time keep the main and most traveled streets as free from parked machines as possible is apparent.

The parking ordinance should have the unqualified support of the public and be passed without delay.

HANDING A LEMON TO UNCLE SAM.

Having cut Asia up into slices and left the Turk at Constantinople, the council of the league of nations has adjourned. In the council there was no voting representative of the United States, and fortunately for us also. We shall never have to bear any of the onus of the slicing and carving of territory, of the pawning of peoples to new governments without consent or question. Great Britain boasted a few days ago that it would only be a short time when she controlled the petroleum output of the world with her holdings in Mexico and the possibilities of new fields in other lands. Now as a part of the spoils of war she has acquired by a scratch of the pen, the wonderfully rich Bakou oil fields of the Caspian region. Only poor and dependent and helpless Armenia remains unprovided with a wet nurse. And the United States is asked to come and help here, because no one else wants it, and there is only poverty and tears and starvation to meet. If Armenia was rich, as is Smyrna, or had oil fields like Bakou, there would be no invitation to Uncle Sam.

WHY SUGAR IS HIGH.

The entire crop of Cuban sugar was offered to the sugar equalization board last summer at 4 1/2 cents a pound. It is quoted and ships are being loaded with the raw product at Cuban ports now at 13.83 cents a pound. While the negotiations were going on and the president of the United States was being importuned to give the sugar board authority to proceed with the purchase, Attorney General Palmer authorized a price of 17 to 18 cents for Louisiana sugar. This was the beginning of price-raising which has continued almost unbroken since. Cuban sugar in great quantities went to Louisiana, was refined and sold at the price fixed by the attorney general with a very large profit. Failure to purchase the Cuban crop will cost the people of the United States close to a billion dollars. The complete failure of the government control has been apparent at every step. Only a few weeks after the government was prosecuting Pittsburgh and other sugar dealers for selling sugar at 13 and 15 cents a pound, the highest officer of the administration of justice permitted the differential to 17 and 18 cents in favor of Louisiana. We are paying the price—a hard, bitter price for that permit and the breaking of government control of sugar. Nor is the president alone responsible. Congress failed, too, in refusing to provide for the continuation of the sugar equalization board. Last May and June members of that body forfeited the very thing that is happening now.

WE NEED IMMIGRATION.

From the foreign language press of recent weeks comes an almost universal protest against the proposed drastic immigration laws now in congress. These are not denunciatory of the government as a rule, or of America. They are penned, apparently, more in sorrow than in anger. And one is bound to admit the force of the arguments advanced that this is not the time to restrict immigration without careful discrimination. The immigrant has made the United States possible in industrial and agricultural progress. Most of the troubles which we have encountered have been of our own making, due to our neglect of the newcomer and failure to appreciate our responsibility for him. It is too much to have expected that he would come here and without an effort or opportunity become thoroughly Americanized. He was not given special attention as a possible citizen, but was often exploited by his own people and by the politician for individual profit.

He is the tiller of many millions of American acres, the vital factor in industries with products of other millions. We need him and he needs America and its opportunities. True, the criminal and the plotter should be met with a return ticket at the entrance gate, but to forbid his coming or to make it so hard for him to come that he will prefer South America, is to sacrifice our future.

We need the five or six millions of Europeans right now who are either homeless or are facing a future, hard and pitiless. We need him with his thrift and his desire to better himself, and any law which will raise a barrier so high that he and his family cannot enter should be defeated in congress. We need him on farms to produce food, and to speed up production everywhere.

A CONFLICT WHICH WILL BEAR WATCHING.

Having failed to capture the state of Minnesota with the Non-Partisan League, and after two years of canvassing for membership, the North Dakota idea is armed and prepared to make a contest for the control of Wisconsin. A newspaper has been established, there is a fund said to be large enough to meet all demands, and with a claim of 28,000 members the league expects a hearing in the politics of the state. Opposing the Non-Partisan League is another farmers' association, the American Society of Equity, headed by the redoubtable J. N. Tittlemore, and between these two organizations the quarrel is bitter. The Farm Bureau has no affiliation with either of these societies whose actions are political rather than economic.

There has been no headway made by the Non-Partisan league in the southern counties of the state. It is largely in those sections where the vote for Berger in 1918 was worth noticing that the Non-Partisan league has its strongest following. What is aimed at is to put through in Wisconsin the platform of socialistic chaos as has been done in North Dakota, and the claim is made that the league will have the support of the La Follette following, which is an extreme statement and very doubtful. Anyhow it is a factor to be reckoned with.

Little profits will bring much satisfaction to the customer and in the aggregate make a fortune for the dealer.

Profits of a chair restaurant chain, one of the kind where the chair arm is used as a table, made a net profit of $770,828 last year. The average amount paid by a customer was 23 cents and the average profit on a customer was one cent.

A mother calls attention to the great amount of paper used in the schools and remarks that the return of the slate would be a saving of not only paper, but a burden is now put on the people who have to buy special pads and "other furbelows" in school. Maybe we will be compelled to return to the slate which if we mistake not, was discarded on the ground of its being unsanitary.

Bill Haywood is going to shut the doors of all the factories, just to show the owners that the United States can't persecute him and get away with it. In the meantime several of Bill's Big Union friends will probably starve.

The One Big Union is the Union of the states of America started in 1776.

We are glad to belong to that—all except the I. W. W.

We wish the president would forget Fiume for a few minutes and look the sugar question squarely in the face.

If Europe is shipping its undesirables over here they might be deported to some of the farms needing help.

With the New York parade a fiasco, the overall movement died as quickly as it was born.

When sugar stops climbing, a box of candy will be as expensive as a diamond engagement ring.

State and Nation Press

There's one good thing about a housing shortage in most places and that is that it compels the repair of structures therefore practically dilapidated. True, some of them are eyesores to the communities in which they are located, but on the whole they are decidedly improved in appearance as compared to a few years ago. Many an old shell that has been vacant for years, or occupied by people as worthless as the house appeared to be, has taken on new life and is at last trying to show a presentable face.—Fond du Lac Reporter.

Initial steps have been taken to organize Hoover clubs throughout this state. And this ought to prove an easy task, as there seems to be considerable Hoover sentiment among Wisconsin voters.—Oshkosh Northwestern.

TEACHERS' SALARIES IN WISCONSIN.

According to the Wisconsin Teachers' association publicity committee, thirty cities of Wisconsin have sized up the school situation and adopted increased salary schedules for public school teachers for 1920-21. They say that if they were to get and keep good teachers they must give adequate salaries and give them promptly, or teachers would all be taken by other schools or other professions. In 1919 there was a shortage of 100,000 qualified teachers.

A number of these cities have adopted schedules which put a premium on good work, successful experience, and additional training. Beloit has adopted a schedule ranging from $1100 to $1400 for teachers in the grades and $1200 to $2200 in the high school. The Beloit school board offers salary advances to successful teachers only. They also offer a $50 bonus at the end of each year to all teachers who attend college summer terms, approved by the superintendent and who earn at least two major credits every other year. Exceptional teachers may earn more than the general maximum salary.

Antigo has adopted a credit system for experience, professional training, and travel, with corresponding salary rewards.

Kenosha has taken into account in determining salary schedules, first, the teacher's preparation, (A) Academic and special training before teaching in Kenosha. (B) Further professional study and training since entering service in Kenosha.

Second: "Experience before coming to Kenosha, the results of which Kenosha profits from."

Third: "Length of service in Kenosha and the quality of that service."

Places such as these, in making salary schedules, are considering what is called the professional salary as distinct from the living wage. A day laborer is entitled to a living wage, ample enough to provide for his old age; so is a teacher, though many people seem to have forgotten it, and the teacher is also entitled to the professional salary over and above the living wage which shall offer a return on his professional training, and allow for the further demands made upon him for study, travel, and for additional professional improvement.

JUST FOLKS

TROUBLE AND FRIENDS.

It's seldom trouble comes alone. I've noticed this—when things go wrong. An' trouble comes a-vissin', it always brings a friend along.

Sometimes it's one you've known before, and then perhaps it's someone new. Who stretches out a helping hand an' stops to see what he can do.

I've gone along through pleasant days when I had not a thing to dread, An' never thought about my friends—they just went through right ahead: Then suddenly the clouds grew gray, an' right away a friend or two Dropped everything to come to me an' figure out what they could do.

If never trials came to us, if grief an' sorrow passed us by, If every day the sun came out an' clouds were never in the sky, We'd still have neighbors, I suppose, each on a rural idyll's end. But neighbors only they would be—we'd never know them as our friends.

Out of the troubles I have had, have come my richest friendships here. Kind hands have helped to bear my care, Kind words have fallen on my ear; An' so I say when troubles comes, I know before the storm shall end, That I shall find my bit of care has also brought to me a friend.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

A LITTLE SLICE OF LIFE.

Old Karl K. Kitcher. Who is always taking The joy out of life, Was written in to tell us That the strawberry shortcake Season is at hand. There are certain things We try to forget. One thing is the sort of Strawberry shortcake They keep on sale now— Three sour berries Perched on top of a piece of dry cake. Back in the old days, When other used to make 'em With the juice oozing out And the luscious berries Piled in so thick You couldn't see the cake. And she used to make it In a big pan and bring it in In a mammoth platter, And we used to sit down And wallow in it and All get sick and everything. We'll bet there isn't A modern cook that ever Saw a real strawberry shortcake. So let us forget The Modern shortcakes. The "yaves" have it.

YOU WIN, JIMMIE.

Dear Roy: What will you bet that the next picture pulled by some one will be to don overalls and walk down Fifth Avenue? JIMMIE C.

Word comes from Washington, D. C., of a very remarkable game of poker. One dealing resulted in three royal flushes. It was claimed that, in this manner, all records in the history of the game were broken.

Personally we don't know very much about poker and we may add that we don't believe anybody else does, but we do not think the game at Washington established any record at all. A short time ago we witnessed another friendly game where Washington contested. This game was held on Long Island and the gentlemen engaged were all friends. It was not in any respect a professional game.

There was a show-down of three hands. The first man had three aces and a pair of kings, the second man had three aces and a pair of queens and the third man had three aces and a pair of jacks. The first man claimed the money, and it was given him by mutual consent. It was a gentleman's game, and nobody was in a kind enough to call attention to the fact that there were nine aces in the deck. It was sort of a strange thing, however, and we doubt if such a deal ever happened before or since.

OPINIONS OF OTHERS

A KISS THAT TIED UP A RAILROAD.

In Norfolk, Va., a few days ago a railroad employee named Brady kissed a girl clerk in full view of the public. Divers joked Brady about it and Brady retorted the jest. Then came another girl and told Brady that Divers had found fault with her work and "made her" in the sentiment of the timekeeper's test about the kiss administered in fun, and on account of his harsh words to the other young woman, Brady and his associates demanded Divers' discharge.

The Norfolk & Western railway refused to discharge the timekeeper and a strike followed that badly hampered the system for several days. The walkout involved 16,000 clerks, shopmen and brakemen, and the tie-up of the railroad was to have been completed the other day by the accession of the firemen and engineers. Fortunately, on the eve of this new calamity, which would have caused the Norfolk & Western to stop functioning, the strike was settled and all hands returned to work.

This reads like a ridiculous story, suitable only as the plot for a comic opera. But to thousands of workmen and their families, and to the considerable community served by the Norfolk & Western railway, there was nothing comic about it. The strike that had been precipitated by a kiss administered purely in fun, upon the cheek of an estimable young lady, caused inconvenience and even suffering out of all proportion to the cause that had brought it into being. Some day both labor and capital will achieve a truer realization of their joint responsibilities to the community. And then it will not be possible for a railroad system to be paralyzed by the sort of airy perennials that for a while put the Norfolk & Western out of business.—St. Joseph News-Press (Ind.).

LOOKING BACKWARD

FORTY YEARS AGO

April 28, 1880.—A statement has just issued by Supt. Hiram Merrill, of the city gas office that the price of gas will again be reduced. The rate will be reduced to $2.00 per thousand feet. Service pipes from the main pipe into the houses will be laid free, as they have been for the past two years.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

April 28, 1890.—The funeral of Henry B. Lovejoy was held this afternoon from the home of Washington Kelly. Rev. M. G. Hodge, of the Baptist church, officiated.—There was a large crowd at the monthly meeting of the Union Temperance church, which was held at the Congregational church. Rev. Evans, of the M. E. church opened the meeting.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

April 28, 1900.—The St. Mary's church was moved from its present foundation today and now rests on the lot on the corner of Wisconsin street and Prospect avenue. A Milwaukee firm did the moving for $2000.—Rev. Walter Hall, of the Court Street Methodist church, has been secured to deliver the Memorial Day oration at the cemetery.

TEN YEARS AGO

April 28, 1910.—A valuable dog, worth about $250, belonging to M. R. Osburn, manager of the Sugar Beet factory, was run over in front of the home on Court street last night, and killed. The auto was being driven at a reckless speed.—"Seven-Twenty-Eight" is the name of the play which will be put on by the Senior Class this year.

Nannie Burroughs' Idea

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN.

Washington, April 28.—The rapidly vanishing domestic servant is being slightly retarded in her race toward extinction by a unique school in this city.

Washington has within its borders a National Training School for Women and Girls, where a larger number of colored girls are being taught how to cook and keep house.

The school is a scattered group of white farm buildings, surrounded by a garden and set on top of a steep hill. The principal, Nannie Burroughs, met us and offered to show us the "plant."

"To it is that you are training girls to supply the nation-wide demand for domestic service," she was asked.

Nannie Burroughs smiled. "Well, we have 120 girls here, and a good many of them are studying domestic science. Very few will go into private homes, but most of the students who graduate here in domestic science go out to teach other girls."

This is the news angle of the Burroughs training school just now. We proceeded to tell you, as Nannie Burroughs told it, the story of a remarkable school, the only one of its kind in the world.

Science of Needle and Thread. Ten years ago, she happened to stop in a little red schoolhouse in a slum district of the city. A dozen colored girls of 14 years were struggling with examples of longitude and time. One girl, with not a button on her dress, and just been away for a day or two, returned that morning to find a new pupil decked out in a dress of violet, with red collar and cuffs. She inquired, and found that the dress had been sent by the girl's mother. That made it harder, but the thing had to be done. She called on the girl and explained that few people, regardless of complexion, can wear any amount of so vivid a pink, and that the material could be changed, it was best put away. The girl was hurt at first, for the dress was new and a present from home, but she finally came around and listened with interest to a lecture on taste in dress.

Pupils Earn Way. The length of time spent in the Burroughs school is measured by the pupils' foundation when she enters, the work she wants to prepare for, and the state of her finances. Each pupil pays $12.50 a month for tuition and board. Many of them earn all or part of their support by working in the summer vacation, and by doing odd jobs in their spare time.

On the door of each bedroom was a card marked good, perfect, fair, or careless. At some unexpected time during the week a monitor would come on every room and appraise it. A hasty glance at the floor is not sufficient. Bureau drawers are opened, ventilation, cleanliness, and arrangement of personal belongings, all are considered.

Spurce Looking Pupils. "I don't think much of a girl who gets 'good,'" said our guide. "And again, these girls like to be praised. They are remarkably disapproving, throwing open a door labeled 'careless.'"

In the classrooms, the girls were the final proof of the soundness of the Burroughs philosophy. Hair, dress and shoes were immaculate, and their manner was reserved. Possibly the fact that marks on personal appearance are part of the regime is responsible for the all-pervading atmosphere of order.

She believes that habits and ideals gained in the school are not easily forgotten when marks stop.

On our way out we passed a classroom door and found the pupils learning the Preamble to the Constitution. Perhaps the girl reciting was embarrassed by a visitor or perhaps it was the influence of the morning talk on the importance of domestic things. Anyway, she began.

"We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice—insure—domestic science—"

A. There are 1,257 railroads of sufficient importance to be listed. This does not include several small roads that make no connection with other lines.

Q. What are the Apostle Spoons? W. L.

A. These are spoons in sets of 12, the number of which are formed by images of the Twelve Apostles and the Virgin Mary. These spoons were once favorite christening gifts. Complete sets are now quite rare and in London a set was sold in London for 4,900 pounds sterling.

Q. Was Stephen A. Douglas a slave holder? R. M.

A. The summer of 1850 Douglas wrote a letter to the Illinois state register, in which he said that it was true that his wife owned about 15 negroes in Mississippi on a cotton plantation. They were given by her father, who had previously offered them to Douglas. The property belonged to his wife exclusively and he had no rights whatever in it.

Q. What was the year of Jubilee? A. G. C.

A. This was an institution ordained by the Hebrews in ancient Bible times, by which every fiftieth year the land they had in the interval passed out of the possession of the original owners, was restored to them. All who had been reduced to poverty and obliged to hire themselves out as servants were released from their bondage and there was a remittance of debts. During this year there was no sowing, no reaping, nor even gathering of grapes. The design of the institution was to prevent the growth of an oligarchy of land owners and a total impoverishment of some families.

Q. When was the greatest fire? W. T.

A. In point of number of lives lost, the destruction of 3,000 persons in the San Francisco fire of 1906, followed by an earthquake, destroyed the greatest amount of property, which was valued at three hundred fifty millions of dollars.

Q. What is the distance around the world by water? Is it half way around the world to the Philippines from New York? A. C. H.

A. The distance around the world by water is 22,100 miles. It is 11,465 miles from New York to the Philippines, or a little more than half way around the world.

BRINGING UP FATHER

I. S. SENIORS WILL NOT HAVE TEAM

Because the seniors of the high school do not seem to be able to get a team together, the game scheduled to be played between them and the juniors for today, but postponed until tomorrow afternoon, will in all probabilities not take place. A contest may be staged, however, between the sophomores and the juniors. In the latter event, the original plan to stage a championship inter-class series will be killed. It will then turn out to be a triangular affair. If the sophs win, they will be accorded winners of the three classes, since they defeated the frosh 21-14 last week. If they lose, the rubber will be played between the juniors and the freshmen. The winning team then will take on the faculty in a final match.

Outlook for a school team, despite these unfortunate circumstances, is good, said Manager George Zimmerman today. As soon as the final class games are played, the school team will commence practicing.

SOX LOSE FIRST; BREWERS WIN IN 13

Rain, rain everywhere and only two games of ball. That was the way things went yesterday in the two major leagues.

American League.

The White Sox yesterday lost their first game of the season. After Faber and Coveleski had battled for five innings, the Sox found Tris Speaker's delivery-man for two runs. Cleveland came back with one in the same inning, another in the eighth to tie, and the winning run in the ninth when Risberg slipped. The final score was 3 to 2.

National League.

Two in the first and one in the third gave the Reds a 3 to 2 victory over St. Louis yesterday. Jarvin's wild throw following singles by Rath, Daubert and Groh made the couplet in the first frame.

It took 13 innings yesterday for the Brewers to defeat the Millers at Minneapolis, 2 to 1. They did it when Mead doubled scoring Forsythe. The score had gone until the ninth with Minneapolis in the lead 1-0, when Cooney smashed a two-bagger which was followed by free passes to Hauser and Gainer and Cooney stole home.

Of the Stars and Stripes A. E. F.

THE FAR-AWAY FOREST.

I know a little wonder-wood,

Beyond wide meadows, daisy-

Beneath whose trees I've never stood.

Whose shadows never eased my noon.

Its sunlight paths or fern-fresh glen,

Its very depths I'd never dare,

Though comes the call, again, again,

To take the turn that leads me

there.

I know beyond its doors of oak,

Behind its walls of mystic green,

The peak-capped elves make sport

and joke

To please some dew-crowned

For here, upon the steel-scarred

pike,

That moans neath wheel and jar-

ring hoof,

I hear the music, fairy-like,

DIAMOND CUT DIAMONDS

By JANE BUNKER

Copyright by the Bobbs-Merrill Co.

He stopped—evidently thinking I meant to unlock the door.

"It won't do you one particle of good to jump this way open," I began, "because I have a chain-bolt on here the same as on the front door. Listen—and I rattled the chain against the wood work. 'Do you hear that? Well, that means that before you can get through that door, you'll have to take it off its hinges—and you can't very well do that because it opens in on your side. Is that clear to you? Look at the hinges, if it isn't.'"

I heard him "clink" again, fiercely but softly, and then heard quietly along the floor and push the catch on the window.

I flew to my bedroom, and seizing the revolver Billy had brought me, I threw up the window—at right angles to the kitchen window—and just as he was about to try the bathroom window, I shouted, "Hold on, there!" and aimed the revolver at his head.

He ducked back in a hurry, peering at me from behind the window-frame.

"There's no use in your trying the bathroom window," "It's nailed down, and before you could break the glass and get in, I'd have shot you dead. Go back to the kitchen door—I have something to say to you."

He did as I told him, and I returned to my side of the door, revolver in hand.

"Now, Mr. Robinson, I want you to go out the way you came in—"

He hesitated for a moment, then he came back, and I saw him peering at me from behind the window-frame.

Another Railroad Places Embargo on Shipments

Chicago, April 28.—The Grand Trunk railroad today placed an embargo on grain shipments to New England via Canada. The embargo closes the outlet from Chicago into that territory, as other roads have previously embargoed grain because of the rail strike.

HOW TO RAISE BABY CHICKS

Put Avicol in the drinking water.

Most people lose half of every hatch and seem to expect it. Chick cholera, or white diarrhea, is the trouble. The U. S. Government states that over half the chicks hatched die from this cause.

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.

Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, sciatica, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frostbitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

FOR CONSTIPATION

THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Skin Irritations

that Itch and Burn

Cause Untold Torture as Warm Weather Approaches.

Many cases of eczema, tetter, pimples, scaly eruptions, and other evidences of a disordered skin very often lie dormant during the winter season, but become active as warm weather approaches, and soon break out into almost intolerable torture.

As soon as you realize that so-called skin diseases originate in the blood, and treat them accordingly, you will be on the right track to free yourself of this annoying trouble.

Just imagine that there is a steady blaze of fire in constant contact with your tender skin, and you can form some idea of the pain that must be endured by the afflicted. For the millions and millions of tiny disease germs that seem to burrow through the skin, each one carrying a torch of fire, cause pain that is almost unbearable.

And the constant plea of those afflicted is the oft-repeated question, "How can I find relief from this constant torture?" Not palliative, temporary relief that causes the terrible itching to abate for awhile, but real genuine relief that shakes off the shackles of the disease and restores the skin to its former healthy condition.

And temporary relief is the most that can be expected from local treatment, such as ointments, salves, lotions, etc., which is one reason why these diseases seem to hold on with such tenacity. It is not because they are incurable, but because they are improperly treated, that they appear to be so stubborn and so difficult to cure.

The fact is they are misnamed, and therefore, improper treatment.

A million gallons of local treatment applied to the surface of the skin, will not eliminate the germs of the disease from the blood and until they are eliminated your skin will never be free from the itching and burning discomfort.

If you want genuine relief, then take a treatment that goes right to the seat of the trouble and removes its cause. Such a remedy is S. S. S., the reliable old blood purifier that cleanses the blood and routs out germs of disease.

S. S. S. has been used successfully in some of the worst cases of eczema and other skin troubles, and it can be relied upon to cleanse the blood. S. S. S. is also a splendid tonic and system builder, and it builds up and adds new vigor to the whole system.

Go to your drugstore and get a bottle of S. S. S. today and begin the right treatment for skin diseases. Then write for free medical advice about your own case, Address Chief Medical Adviser, 188 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

New York, April 28.—Downward tendencies prevailed on the stock market today. After opening with a general decline, the market rallied somewhat from its early setback, but fell to lower levels as pressure against steel, equipments, motor cars and oils became more acute. Recoveries in these groups ranged from 1 to 3 points, but General Motors dropped 15 points. Shipping, textiles, leather and sugars joined the reactionary movement before noon. When selling became more urgent, failure of the United States Steel directors to increase the common dividend, and the outburst of a stock market rally, which ranged from 3 to 3 1/2 lower, with May 17 1/2 to 17 3/4, and July 3 1/2 to 3 3/4, were followed by moderate further setbacks and then something of a rally.

Price tendencies were downward on the market for grain. The market for wheat, however, was more active, and the market for corn was more active. The market for oats was more active.
